We see our role as leaders of socio-economic transition towards a knowledge based healthcare industry, in line with WHO's understanding, an industry which is "effective" in promoting the relative state of people's socio-psychological, socio-economic and physical well-being.

